City of Manassas Selects Diane Bergeron As Director of Finance

City of Manassas, VA . . . Diane Bergeron was selected from a pool of more than 50 applicants to be Director of Finance for the City of Manassas beginning Feb. 26, 2018. Bergeron has been Acting Finance Director since June 2017. This was her second time filling in as the Acting Finance Director.

Bergeron has been with the City of Manassas for more than ten years serving primarily as the Budget Manager. In her roles with the City, Diane has worked closely with each department and City Council. Her experience and knowledge has been instrumental in helping the City of Manassas meet their strategic priorities and vision.

“I am happy to make this announcement as Diane has a proven track record of fiscal responsibility for our residents and strong leadership skills for our staff,” said City Manager W. Patrick Pate.

Bergeron has a Bachelor of Arts and a Masters of Public Administration from the University of Connecticut. She currently serves as President of the Virginia Government Finance Officers Association (VGFOA).

Prior to coming to the City of Manassas, she served as Senior Management and Budget Analyst for Leon County in Tallahassee, Florida.
