Free June Events at the Harris Pavilion

City of Manassas, VA . . . The City of Manassas hosts free events all summer long at the Harris Pavilion. This outdoor entertainment venue is located in the heart of Historic Downtown Manassas and has become a cultural hub for the area.

Acoustic Tuesdays at the Harris Pavilion

This free concert series is on Tuesday evenings at 7 p.m. and feature premier acts. Attendees are invited to bring dinner from a local restaurant and a blanket or chair to sit and enjoy the show.

- June 4 - The Bone Show is a one-man band featuring Chris Bowen, a premier bass drum, a set of high hats with tambourine, a few mics and a Taylor guitar. This unique show plays your favorite classic rock tunes, some old and new country jams, and even some original material.
- June 11 - Nashville-based Indie-Pop Singer/Songwriter Shane Hines tours nationally with Corey Smith and Pat McGee as well as independently. His solo acoustic show is all about powerful vocals paired with a rockin' guitar.
- June 18 - Join Hayley Fahey, a singer/songwriter with a soulful R & B sound that translates into passionate vocal performances with an indie-folk vibe.
- June 25 - Join singer/songwriter Shane Gamble for a blend of country, rock, pop, and Americana. He is building on the success of his recent single Beautiful Work, which cracked the Top 40 on the Billboard charts, and his breakout pop/country single Turn My Way which reached #1 on Sirius XM "The Highway."
