Assault and Battery

At approximately 5:00 p.m. on February 5, 2013 Manassas City Police Officers responded to the 9200 block of Douglas St in reference to a dispute. Upon arrival, officers discovered that an argument between a resident and her landlord had escalated into a physical altercation. The victim sustained minor injuries. The offender, Katrina Boxley (36) of Manassas was arrested for Assault and Battery and released on a $2,000.00 unsecured bond.

Burglary

At approximately 4:30 p.m. on February 5, 2013 a Manassas City Police Officer responded to the 9800 block of Hutchison Ln in reference to a burglary. According to the victim, someone(s) entered his garage and stole several items valued in excess of $1,000.00. Among the items taken were a chainsaw, circular saw and generator. The victim suspected the burglary took place sometime during the overnight hours the night of February 4, 2013. This is an ongoing investigation.

Crime Prevention Tip: While any home or neighborhood can be a target for theft, burglary is nearly always a crime of opportunity. Criminals often choose homes that seem unoccupied or those that seem easiest to access. Make sure the doors and windows are secured and locked at all times, including those in the garage. Also, take inventory of the valuables in your home. Include serial numbers, photographs, other identifying information and their value, and store it someplace safe outside of the home.
