Vandalisms

On August 28, 2013, just after 1:00AM, an unknown suspect broke a window at the back of a residence on the 9300 block of Gooseberry Drive. A resident reported hearing something hit the back of the house. She then looked out and saw at least one suspect flee the area on a bicycle. She described the suspect as a Hispanic or darker-skinned white male, wearing a white T-shirt, carrying a yellow drawstring backpack, and riding a black bike. A short time later, at the intersection of Gooseberry Drive and Cloverhill Road, a parked motorcycle was knocked over. Also, on the nearby 9900 block of Hampton Road, a rock was thrown through the back window of a parked car.

Larceny from Residence

Manassas City Police are investigating the theft of tools from the front porch of a residence on the 10200 block of Magnolia Grove Drive. The theft occurred shortly before 9:45PM Monday, August 26. The owner, who was doing plumbing repairs, briefly left the tool box on the porch. He described the toolbox as black plastic, possibly 'Husky' brand, with a reflective stripe.

Larceny from Auto

Manassas City Police are investigating the theft of power tools from a work van on the 9200 block of Bayberry Avenue. The owner stated that the items were taken from the locked van (parked in his driveway) sometime between 2:00PM Sunday, August 25, and 5:00AM Monday, August 26. A lock on the side door of the van was broken.

Larceny from Auto

Manassas City Police are investigating the theft of two iPods from a car parked on the 9200 block of Timberwood Court. The owner reported the theft on Saturday, August 24; but said the theft had occurred during the night of August 19. The owner said the car was parked in his driveway and was left unlocked. He said one iPod was in plain sight and the other was inside a center console compartment.
