Assault, Escape – Arrest

On Thursday, August 29, at 8:10AM, Manassas City Police were called to the Probation and Parole Office at 9309 Center Street to take Toby Terry into custody for a probation violation. Police were then advised that Mr. Terry, upon learning that he was going to jail, assaulted a Probation Officer and fled the building. The probation officer was not injured. At approximately 1:00PM that day, Police located Mr. Terry near the Wellington Station Shopping Center (10080 Dumfries Road) and safely took him into custody. Toby Allen Terry, 43, of 8103 Spruce Street, was charged with Escape from Custody and Assault on Law Enforcement Officer, and held at the ADC on $5,000 bond (court dates TBD).

Burglary of Elementary School

The Manassas City Police Department is investigating the burglary of Baldwin Elementary School at 9705 Main Street. The burglary occurred at approximately 9:00PM Thursday, August 29, when two suspects forced entry through a window into a trailer classroom, behind the main school building. A school employee, responding to the alarm activation, saw the suspects flee the trailer and run toward Main Street. The witness described one of the suspects as being a black male in his early 20`s, 6`1" tall, about 200 pounds, with short, dark hair, and wearing a black shirt with red and white lettering and baggy blue jeans. The second suspect was described as a Hispanic or bi-racial female in her late teens or early 20`s, 5`5" tall, with a medium build, dark hair in a pony-tail, and wearing a gray t-shirt and shorts. It appeared that the suspects had ransacked the trailer. At this time, it is unknown whether anything was stolen. Officers were able to collect physical evidence. The investigation is ongoing.
