Harassing Phone Calls

On March 26, 2014 Manassas City Police met with a resident on the 8800 block of Fort Dr for a report of harassing phone calls. The victim told officers that someone(s) impersonating an Internal Revenue Service employee called several times and demanded the victim's personal information. The victim was able to thwart the caller's attempts to gather information by hanging up the phone.

Crime Prevention Tip: The Internal Revenue Service will never call you to obtain information, but it is not uncommon for a criminal to call and impersonate an IRS employee. Never give out personal or financial information unless you initiate contact with whom you are speaking. If you think the call may be fraudulent, HANG UP!

If you need to speak with someone at the IRS, call them directly at 703-756-6663 or visit www.irs.gov. For the Treasury Inspector's General for Tax Administration's March 20, 2014 Press Release entitled "TIGTA Warns of 'Largest Ever' Phone Fraud Scam Targeting Taxpayers", click here.
