Theft of Motor Vehicle Parts

On May 7, 2014 Manassas City Police met with a resident for a report of stolen vehicle parts. According to the victim, someone(s) stole the black, 4x14" rims and tires (valued at $500.00) from the back of his 1995 Honda Civic sometime between 12:30AM and 8:30AM on May 7, 2014. The car was parked on Digges Rd near Devonshire Ct at the time of the theft.

Breaking and Entering

On May 7, 2014 Manassas City Police met with staff at 9720 Capital Ct for a report of a vandalism and breaking and entering. The reporting party told officers that City Palace, a ballroom-style room that frequently hosts social gatherings in the location, was the site of a breaking and entering between the evening of May 5th and morning of May 6th. The window at the back entrance of the ballroom was broken in from the outside, and a significant amount of white paint had been poured onto the carpeted floor within the ballroom. Graffiti and carvings were also found on the walls within the ballroom.
