MCPD Commemorates Sgt John D Conner, III

July 24, 2014

This day marks the 26th anniversary of the death of Sergeant John D Conner, III, who was killed in the line of duty on July 24, 1988 while responding to a domestic call for service on Laurelwood Ct. Conner, a seven-year veteran of the police force at the time, had been promoted to sergeant just days prior to the incident. Survived by his wife and four children, Sgt Conner was the first and only officer to have died in the line of duty in Manassas City Police Department's 141-year history. To commemorate his death and keep the memory alive of Sgt Conner and his service to MCPD and the City, the following events are taking place.

- THREE ROLL CALLS at Landgreen St and Laurelwood Ct | 6:30am, 4pm, and 8pm
- GRAVESIDE WREATH CEREMONY | Sgt Conner's gravesite at Quantico National Cemetery | 9am
- MEMORIAL RUN | 2.3 miles beginning at Stonewall Park | 3pm
- MOMENT OF SILENCE | 9pm

Please join MCPD in honoring the death and life of our fallen hero, Sgt John D Conner, III.

Sgt John D Conner, III
