Malicious Wounding – Arrest

At approximately 1:55AM on October 27, 2014 Manassas City Police responded to Tommy's Place Bar & Grill, located at 8910 Mathis Ave, for a report of an assault. Upon arrival, officers observed evidence of a fight having taken place in the parking lot. Officers then located the victim, 26-year-old male, at a business nearby and arranged for medical attention to address his non-life-threatening injuries to the face and head. According to witnesses, the suspect, 24-year-old Carlos RAMIREZ VANEGAS, struck the victim several times in the head with a beer bottle and also kicked the victim in the head before fleeing the scene with another male. He was located moments later by officers at his residence at 10306 Butternut Cir. RAMIREZ VANEGAS was charged with malicious wounding with malice and public intoxication. He was held without bond and has a pending court date of November 25, 2014.

Ramirez Vanegas, Carlos (24)
