Officer Involved Crash – Arrest Released by [Prince William County Police Public Information Office on April 3, 2015] – On April 3rd at 12:56AM, officers responded to the area of the Prince William Pkwy-bypass near the Nokesville Rd in the Manassas (20110) section of Prince William County to investigate a crash involving a Manassas City police officer. The investigation revealed that the officer made a traffic stop just outside the city limits on the Prince William Pkwy-bypass for an infraction which occurred in the city. The officer was operating a marked police cruiser with blue flashing lights activated. Both vehicles stopped along the roadway's shoulder outside of the travel lanes when the driver of a 2000 Ford E150 approached from behind and struck the cruiser. The force of the collision pushed the officer's cruiser into the vehicle originally stopped and caused the officer to become entrapped. Fire and Rescue crews successfully removed the officer from the cruiser. The officer was in and out of consciousness and was flown to an area hospital for treatment of non-life threatening injuries. No other injuries were reported. Following the investigation, the driver of the Ford E150 was charged. Speed, alcohol and drug use are not factors in this collision.

Charged on April 3rd:

The driver of the 2000 Ford E150 was identified as Peggy Durage DRAUGLIS, 79, of 205 E. Chestnut St, St Michaels, MD

Charged with reckless driving-fail to maintain control of vehicle
