Multi-Jurisdictional Investigation Yields Arrests in Commercial Burglaries

Dec. 29, 2015

Manassas City Police detectives have charged three suspects following a multi-jurisdictional investigation into a series of burglaries targeting commercial businesses in Northern Virginia.

The suspects have been connected to over 20 burglaries in Loudoun County, the Town of Leesburg, Frederick County, Prince William County, the City of Manassas, Stafford County, the City of Fredericksburg, and Fairfax County. In Manassas City, the two businesses targeted on Aug. 22, 2015 were China Star Restaurant on Wellington Rd and Subway Restaurant on Nokesville Rd. Various items were stolen, including a computer and undisclosed amounts of cash.

Detectives from Manassas City Police worked in coordination with Loudoun County Sheriff's Office, Prince William County Police, Stafford County Sheriff's Office, Fairfax County Police, Frederick County Sheriff's Office, and City of Fredericksburg Police. The investigation continues with the possibility of additional arrests and charges.
