Breaking & Entering

On March 21, 2016, Manassas City Police met with a resident on the 8700 block of Richmond Ave for a report of a breaking and entering. The reporting party told officers that sometime between March 12 and 16, someone stole approximately ten silver half dollar coins (valued at $100) and a social security card from his residence. The items were last seen in a coin box, which was left on a window ledge.

Fraud

On March 16, 2016, Manassas City Police met with a resident on the 1200 block of Nittany Dr for a report of a fraud. The victim, a 25-year-old male, told officers that between May and Dec. 2015, he received several calls from a supposed personal loan company that claimed he had an outstanding debt of $1,800. Believing the debt was real, the victim proceeded to make installment payments using his credit card. Before the final payment was made, the company notified the victim that if he did not pay the remainder, he would be arrested by the Police. After paying the full amount of the alleged debt, the victim contacted the actual company who told him no such loan existed, before contacting Police.
