Crime Report
Sept. 21, 2016

Larceny

At approximately 9 p.m. on Sept. 20, 2016, Manassas City Police responded to the 9000 block of Meadowview Dr for a report of larceny. The reporting party told officers that after mistakenly leaving a cell phone and keys on her vehicle, she ran an errand and upon her return home she discovered both items were missing. When the victim called the missing cell phone, a female answered but refused the victim's attempts to return the phone. The phone was valued at $600.

Assault & Battery

On Sept. 19, 2016, Manassas City Police met with a resident on the 9800 block of Maury Ln for a report of an assault. The reporting party told officers that at approximately 3:15 p.m. on Sept. 16, he was walking in the area of the 9600 block of Main St (known as the "Baldwin Cut") with a friend when they were approached by a group of unknown males. The male subjects, all in their teens, allegedly struck one of the victims – both juvenile males – several times, causing non-life-threatening injuries. The second victim was able to escape without injuries.

Hit & Run–Vehicle

On Sept. 19, 2016, Manassas City Police met with a citizen on the 8500 block of Artillery Rd for a report of a hit and run. The reporting party told officers that sometime between 8 p.m. on Sept. 18 and 12:30 p.m. on Sept. 19, her vehicle had been struck by an unknown vehicle when it was parked on a residential street. Damages were estimated at $5,000.

Larceny from Vehicle

On Sept. 17, 2016, Manassas City Police met with a resident on the 9800 block of Main St for a report of a larceny from vehicle. The reporting party told officers that sometime during the overnight hours, someone stole several items valued together at $950 out of his unlocked vehicle. The stolen items included a tablet, a men's watch, and U.S. currency.

Burglary

On Sept. 15, 2016, Manassas City Police met with a resident on the 9200 block of Hastings Dr for a report of a burglary. The reporting party told officers that at approximately 1 p.m., he was informed that an unknown subject was attempting to break in to his residence. Officers observed that the victim's front door sustained minor damages from someone apparently kicking it in to gain access.
