Obtaining Goods By False Pretenses

On February 5, 2019, the Manassas City Police Department released an information bulletin in an attempt to identify possible additional victims in a scam involving door-to-door solicitation. The investigation revealed, the suspect, Brian DELAY, misrepresented himself as a representative of a wheelchair basketball league and solicited donations at residences in the City of Manassas. Through the release of the information bulletin, detectives were able to identify numerous victims from incidents which occurred over the past several years. On April 10, 2019, Brian DELAY was taken into custody for charges related to this case.

*Arrested: DELAY, Brian, a 42 year-old resident of Manassas.
Charges: Obtaining Goods by False Pretenses x8*
