Robbery

On May 17, 2020 at approximately 1:20 a.m., officers of the Manassas City Police Department responded to the 9000 block of Centreville Road for a report of a robbery. The victim told police he was walking in the area when he was assaulted by three or four Hispanic males. One of the suspects stole a wallet containing cash and credit cards from the victim. The victim sustained minor injuries. The investigation is on-going.

Shots Fired

On May 16, 2020 at approximately 11:06 a.m., officers of the Manassas City Police Department responded to the 8900 block of Wood Drift Circle for a report of shots fired. Witnesses reported seeing two males and a female arguing outside in the area. A male suspect was observed firing a shot into the air before leaving the scene. A residence nearby was struck, but did not sustain significant damage. The suspect is described as a Hispanic male with long hair and was last seen in a grey Toyota. The investigation is on-going.
